

Doctors look after people's health and wellbeing by diagnosing and treating their health problems.

There are lots of different doctors.

Some work with the community in general practice. Others specialise in areas like paediatrics (working with babies and children), public health (preventative medicine and health education), psychiatry (mental health) and surgery.

Education required	To become a doctor you need to have a Bachelor of Medicine and a Bachelor of Surgery.
Training offered by	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • University of Otago • University of Auckland
Perks!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lots of job opportunities! • Opportunities to travel • Different areas of medicine you can specialise in.
Links	www.mcnz.org.nz Medical Council of New Zealand www.otago.ac.nz/courses/qualifications University of Otago www.auckland.ac.nz/uoa/home/about/programme-courses University of Auckland

